

For Immediate Release

Contact:
Kimberly Kuhn
Senior Marketing Manager
(978) 577-4176
kkuhn@tycoint.com

Tyco Security Products, Security-Net partner to offer integrated security solutions to national, global clients
Two companies to jointly offer technology, installation and service expertise to key customers

Westford, MA – October xxx, 2010 – Tyco Security Products announced today that it has partnered with Security-Net, a network of leading independent systems integrators, by recognizing it with National Account status. This prestigious designation comes in conjunction with Tyco Security Products brands, Software House and American Dynamics, being recognized among the technologies of choice in the Security-Net portfolio.

Along with offering integrated solutions from Tyco Security Product's flagship brands, Software House and American Dynamics, Security-Net will be able to provide organizations with customized security consultation services and standardized pricing for technology and services as part of the relationship. Security-Net's 18 member companies represent more than 1,200 employees and more 50 offices around the globe, with combined revenues in excess of $340 million.

"Security-Net's entrepreneurial spirit of independent business, combined with its global capabilities in security sales, service and support, make the group an ideal partner for Tyco Security Products," said Jim Kelly, Vice President of Americas Sales, Tyco Security Products. "We are proud to support Security-Net in offering our ever-expanding portfolio of integrated solutions in access control and video to customers around the world."

Security-Net provides national and international corporations with a single systems integration resource, service on a local and national level, and standardization on products and technical support. As a recognized National Account, Tyco Security Products will provide Security-Net with additional product and marketing support.

"We are very pleased to have been recognized as a national accounts provider by Tyco Security Products," said Tom Asp, president of Security-Net. "Their reputation of providing outstanding enterprise-level surveillance and access control technology will enable us to equip our global customers with proven, leading-edge security solutions."

###

About Security-Net

Founded in 1993, Security-Net is a network of 18 North American and five international system integrators offering customers a single, responsible source for meeting all electronic security needs. For more information visit the Security-Net Web site at www.security-net.com.

Tyco Security Products

Tyco Security Products, a business unit of Tyco International, is a unified group of world-leading access control, video and intrusion brands. Operating in more than 40 offices with over 2000 employees, these brands- American Dynamics, Bentel, CEM Systems, DSC, Kantech, Software House, CONNECT24 and Sur-Gard- have more combined years of experience in the security industry than any other group in the world. Our security integration platforms, built by our developers from across all product disciplines allow our customers to see more, do more, and save more. Our solutions today are designed to be compatible with the technology of tomorrow. For more information visit www.americandynamics.net; www.bentelsecurity.com; www.cemsys.com; www.dsc.com; www.kantech.com; www.swhouse.com; www.connect24.com; www.surqard.com.

About Tyco International

Tyco International (NYSE: TYC) is a diversified, global company that provides vital products and services to customers in more than 60 countries. Tyco is a leading provider of security products and services, fire protection and detection products and services, valves and controls, and other industrial products. Tyco had 2008 revenue of more than $20 billion and has 113,000 employees worldwide. More information on Tyco can be found at www.tyco.com.